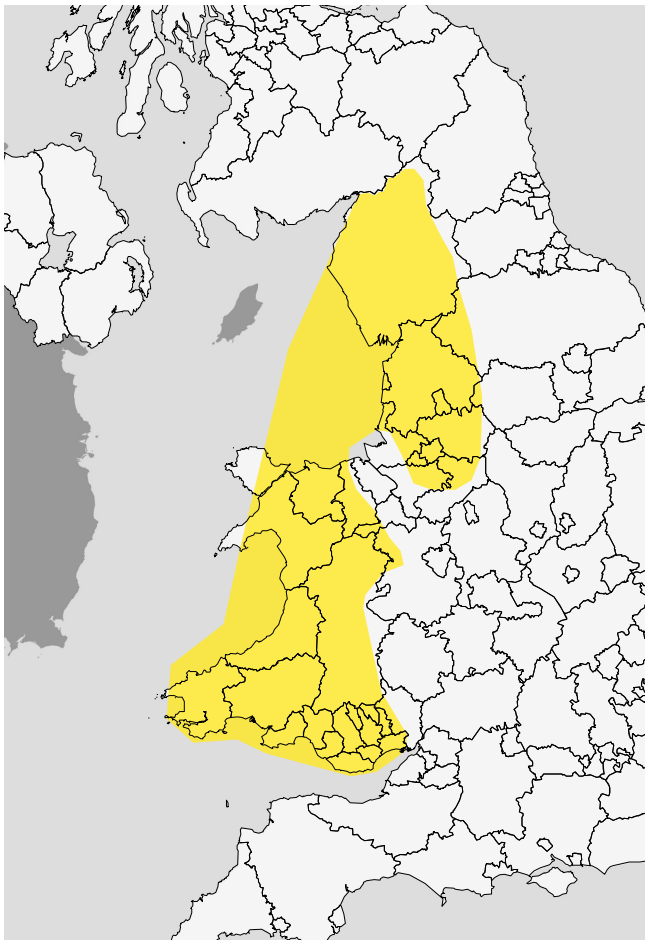
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
09:00 Sun 1 Nov 2020 and
23:59 Sun 1 Nov 2020



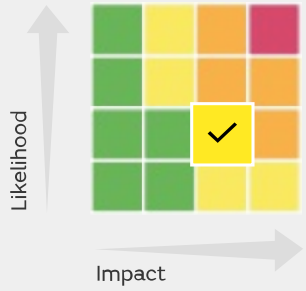
Periods of heavy rain are expected to affect Wales and northwest England during Sunday bringing the risk of further flooding.

What to expect

- Homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Fast flowing or deep floodwater is possible, causing a danger to life
- Delays or cancellations to train and bus services are possible
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Some communities may be cut off by flooded roads
- Possible power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

Outbreaks of rain will spread across the UK during Sunday with prolonged spells of heavy rain likely across Wales and northwest England. Following heavy rain in these areas during previous days, further flooding impacts and disruption to transport is likely. The heaviest rainfall is expected across the hills and mountains of northwest Wales and Cumbria. Strong winds are likely with potential for leaf fall to exacerbate flooding in places.



Low likelihood of medium impacts
